

The City of Adams has a junk vehicle ordinance #10-5-8 which states that any non-licensed, disassembled, inoperable, junked, wrecked motor vehicles, tires or appliances may not be stored upon private residential property for a period exceeding ten (10) days. Each motor vehicle or appliance shall constitute a separate offense.

Whenever the Adams Police Department finds such violations within the City, they shall notify the owner of said property of the violation. If the violation is not removed or disposed of within five (5) days, the Adams Police Department shall cause to be issued a citation to the property owner.

If the violation is not removed within twenty (20) days after issuance of citation, the Chief of Police shall cause the violation to be removed, impounded and disposed of as prescribed in Section 10-5-3 through 10-5-6. Any cost incurred in the removal and sale of such violation shall be recovered from the owner or charged to the property from which it is removed, charges shall be entered as a special charge on the tax roll.
